OUR GROUP COVENANT

A "covenant" is a pledge or promise on which one can rely. Our covenant is designed to help make the experience we have a time of fun, fellowship, and acquiring an appreciation for Christian music.

Therefore, we covenant to . . .

- Treat each other in a Christian manner.
- Help each other, even if it means sacrifice.
- Participate fully by going to at least one concert if not more.
- Respect everyone's experience by being at check in times on time.
- If we are middle school students, travel with our adult leader in groups of about 6 at all times.
- If we are high school students, traveling in groups of 3 or more and check in with our assigned adult.
- Bring this experience back home to those not able to participate by sharing our experiences with other youth and the congregation, without making them feel excluded.
- Expect our leaders to treat us with respect.
- Give adult leaders authority to judge as they see fit, knowing that the Youth Director (Lori Schwan) has final authority.
- Handle the following behavior issues in this manner:
 - A. Disagreements/hassles
 - B. Smoking and other use of tobacco products
 - C. Sexual behavior
 - D. Drugs and alcohol

Consequences

1. Warning (A & B)
2. Time spent sitting in the park with an adult (A & B)
3. Tough situations on a case-by-case-basis (A)
4. Parents will drive to Orlando and pick up their son/daughter (C & D)
